

Teeing up for Charity

Great Lakes Hemophilia Foundation
Headline News - July 2010

Jessica Kveen, Special Event Coordinator

Golfers of all skill levels gathered at The Bog in Saukville on Monday, May 17th to raise awareness and funds for the bleeding disorders community of Wisconsin. The 19th Annual Teeing up for Charity raised over $44,000 for Great Lakes Hemophilia Foundation. Golfers enjoyed new course games. The putting challenge offered skilled golfers a chance at Brewers-Cubs tickets. After golfing and dinner more winners were announced as GLHF gave away tickets to the US Open, and golfers bid on the chance to sit on the bench with special guest Rob Jeter and Midwest/ Frontier airline tickets.

Overall the day was a huge success in thanks to our sponsors and hard working volunteers and committee members!
